Bedroom  A photograph of another bedroom in poor condition. The walls are covered in vertical wood-grain wallpaper that is peeling and stained. The floor is made of light-colored square tiles, many of which are missing or damaged. A window is visible on the left wall.	Bedroom 2 Renovated  A photograph of the second bedroom after renovation. The walls are a uniform light cream color. The floor is dark-stained wood-look laminate. A window with white blinds is on the right wall, and a small framed picture hangs on the left wall. The room is bright and finished.
