MACH Academy, Inc. established in April 1992, is a 501 (c) 3 non-profit organization that provides year round classes and camps in Tutoring/Academic Support, STEM, Social Skills Development, Nutrition, Career Exploration, College Planning, and Tennis/Fitness Instruction.

Programs are supported through partial funding and in-kind support provided by: Augusta-Richmond County, The Housing and Community Development Department, Augusta Recreation, Parks and Facilities Department, International Paper Augusta Mill, Publix Super Markets, CSRA United Way, Combined Federal Campaign, USTA Georgia Tennis Association, USTA Southern Section, United Way of Aiken County, Inc., Wells Fargo, Knox Foundation, Comcast, Corporation for National and Community Service (Foster Grandparents), Potash Corporation, USTA Foundation, Walmart, Kimberly Clark and others.

We expose participants to the lifetime sport of tennis in a success-oriented and friendly environment. Our Pathway Through Tennis is” accessible to participants ages 3 – 18 and includes: Ten and Under Tennis clinics, Junior Tennis Clinics, USTA Junior Team Tennis, USTA Sanctioned Junior Tournaments, USTA Tennis Clubs, Tennis Match Play Days as well as Summer Tennis and Academic camps. We encourage participants to use the game of tennis to help pave the way for tennis college scholarships. Technology and computer learning sessions are infused into program offerings.
